What Must One Do to Obtain a Plenary Indulgence? To obtain the plenary indulgence on November 1st to 8th, we must receive Communion and sacramental Confession). Communion must be received each day we wish to gain the indulgence, but we only need to go to Confession once during the period. A good prayer to recite to earn the indulgence is Eternal Rest, though any formal or informal prayer for the dead will suffice. And, as with all plenary indulgences, we must pray for the intentions of the Holy Father (one Our Father and one Hail Mary) each day we perform the work of the indulgence. An indulgence, applicable only to the Souls in Purgatory, is granted to the faithful, who devoutly visit a cemetery and pray, even if only mentally, for the departed. The indulgence is plenary each day from the 1st to the 8th of November; on other days of the year it is partial.

A Triduum in honour of St. Joseph will take place at Knock Shrine from November 5th to 7th, during which a newly commissioned statue of St. Joseph will be unveiled. A statue of St. Joseph, as he appeared at Knock, first formed part of the Apparition tableau that was commissioned by Canon Grealy and placed at the Gable Wall of the parish church in 1931. The Knock Witnesses said that St. Joseph bowed his head respectfully to Our Lady and had his hands joined in prayer. This tableau remained at the Gable for almost half a century and was the focal point for millions of prayers and petitions for hope and healing. Knock Museum is now home to this tableau where it continues to be a focal point for prayer. The tableau was conserved at Knock Museum by Jason Ellis, Stone Sculptor & Conservator in 2016. The museum is open daily from 10am to 6pm and admission is free.

Synodal Process: In these days, the Catholic Church throughout the world and in Ireland is beginning a series of conversations about what God wants of his people at this time. These conversations are often referred to as a Synodal Process. "Synodal" comes from a Greek word which means "walking together". On Sunday 17th October we mark the opening of this Synodal Process entitled, *For a synodal Church: communion, participation and mission. This Synodal Process coincides with the start of the two-year Syno.dal Pathway for the Catholic Church in Ireland which will lead, in time, to a National Synodal Assembly in Ireland. We pray that the next two years will be a time of prayer, listening and discernment, involving a consultative conversation. This will allow all people - both within the Church and in society at large, to share their insights into the Catholic Church in Ireland – past, present and future – so that we can prepare for a National Synodal Assembly in the coming years. - to learn more about the Synodal Pathway for the Catholic Church in Ireland www.catholicbishops.ie/synod– to learn more about the worldwide Synod www.synod.va
