TALK: Exploring Christmas traditions Join Salvador Ryan, for a festive journey exploring the origins of Christmas traditions. Saturday, 2 Dec. at 3pm, at the National Museum of Ireland – Country Life, Turlough Park, Castlebar. We are so familiar with elements of the Christmas story, and the traditions which developed from it, that we can almost take them for granted. But where did these traditions come from? Some are very ancient while others are relatively recent. Find out more at this interactive event. Admission is free but booking is required. Telephone the bookings office on (094) 90 31751 or email educationtph@museum.ie.
