The Saint Feuillen Folkloric March: On Sunday, 27th September 2026, the historic St. Feuillen procession will take place in the town of Fosses-la-Ville, Belgium. This remarkable religious tradition, first established in 1635, is held every seven years and continues to attract pilgrims and visitors from across the region. The tradition began when the saint's relics were carried through the town and surrounding countryside, in prayer for God's protection from plague, war and natural disasters, as well as asking for favourable weather to ensure successful harvest.

Today, this centuries-old tradition remains a powerful expression of faith and community. The relics of Saint Feuillen are carried in solemn procession from early morning until evening, accompanied by thousands of participants in traditional costume. The pilgrimage concludes with the return of the relics to the parish church, where Mass is celebrated, followed by festivities that honour the town's rich spiritual and cultural heritage.

In answer to the question 'how can we know the way?' (John 14:5) Jesus declared that 'I am the Way, the Truth and Life.' This platform is intended to help people to know the Way – to discover the faith, live the faith and pass on the faith. It is for both seekers and followers. Together, we are led by Christ to be pilgrims of hope.
